

WASHINGTON POST
AND TIMES HERALD

NOV 29 1954

The Washington Post and Times Herald

For and about WOMEN

Monday, November 29, 1954

PAGE 25

In Spite of Bathrobe Bet*Even the Cadets Celebrated*

By Winzola McLendon

BUT, BACK to the Cadets. Following their dinner at Gimble's the party moved en masse across the street to the Ben Franklin Hotel for a dance in the main ballroom. Chins were up and spirits were high. By now, Saturday's game was old and there was talk of "what we'll do next year."

Glancing around the dance floor we saw a sizable number of Cadets and girls from the Washington area. Plebe "Chuck" Cabell (he is the son of Lieut. Gen. and Mrs. Charles P. Cabell) was dancing with Melisa Ross, daughter of the commanding general of Bolling Air Force Base, and Mrs. Ross. Katie Cabell was there with Plebe Bob Donovan. Then there was Mary Montgomery with the Cabell's nephew, John Marks of Pasadena. Yearling Chico Stone, son of Lieut. Gen. and Mrs. Charles Stone of Bolling, Carol Dunn, Larry Bullis, Larry Lomero, and Hawley Oaks, son of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. John Oaks, were also on hand.